Dr Till Spillmann elected as new member of the Board of Directors of Stone Estate.Swiss AG

Stone Estate.Swiss AG, Baar, has appointed Dr Till Spillmann, a highly respected and experienced M&A and capital markets lawyer to its Board of Directors as it builds its position as a major investor in Swiss quality real estate.

Till Spillmann, a partner at the law firm Niederer Kraft Frey, Zurich, has joined the Board of Stone Estate.Swiss AG with immediate effect. He brings to the role extensive experience in large complex international and domestic private and public M&A, capital markets and corporate finance transactions both in Switzerland and internationally. As investor and member of the Board Directors of ImmoMentum AG, a Swiss private real estate firm, and Talbot Holding AG, a Swiss investment company, he has extensive experience of the Swiss real estate market. His distinguished career includes a spell on secondment with Linklaters in London, one of the leading so-called “Magic Circle” law firms which specialize in major international corporate finance and transaction related work.

Till Spillmann joins a Board which already boasts extensive experience in finance and real estate. He will sit alongside Chairman Christophe Reech, founder of Reech Corporations Group, a leading international investor in real estate and technology, and fellow Board Members, Henri-Christophe Oppenheim, formerly Chief Operating and Chief Risk and Compliance Officer of Pictet Private Bank and Maurice Gauchot, former Chairman of CBRE France, and sometime Board member of the Banque de France.

Christophe Reech, Chairman and CEO of Stone Estate.Swiss AG comments: “We are delighted that someone of the calibre of Till Spillmann has agreed to join the Board of Stone Estate.Swiss as we accelerate our development as a major player in the Swiss real estate market. Till’s excellent experience as corporate and capital markets lawyer as well as real estate investor will be invaluable, as well as his unique ability to combine both international and local market perspectives – which is the hallmark of the distinctive Stone Estate.Swiss approach. We now have a strong Board with unrivalled depth and breadth of experience with which to move forward on to the next exciting stage of the development of our Company.”
